

Roy Donald Bratton

Born: 3 November 1944 – 4 August 1969

(aged 24)

1st Lieutenant Bratton was shot down while piloting a plane over enemy territory. He had been stationed in Da Nang, Vietnam exactly four months when his death was reported. He reported for active duty February 1967, and received a year's flight training. He was a member of the 421st Tactical Fighters Squadron and at last report he had flown over 100 missions.

VVM Wall, Panel 20w, Line 94.

