

Class of 1937 – Donald Ivo Newman.

Professional photographer, Newman's efforts have helped capture Memphis landmarks – those that have vanished from the landscape and those that have remained a constant backdrop to social change—and shine a light on the city's history.