

Scottie J. Allen, Class of 1979.

Man Charged in Girlfriend's Death

Scottie Allen and her boyfriend who had lived together for 14 years had been arguing. When Allen walked away from him into another room, the boyfriend got a shotgun from the bedroom intending to intimidate her and persuade her to listen.

The boyfriend met Allen in the hallway and the shotgun fired. She was wounded on the left side of her abdomen. She was taken to The Med, where she died.

The police said the boyfriend admitted he shot her.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Saturday, April 28, 2007.