

John Milton Bailey, Jr., T-43

3 June 1925 – 12 October 2013

(aged 84)

Iwo Jima fighting claims another casualty, Corp. John Milton Bailey, Jr., who is in a Marianas hospital after being wounded February 27 while with the Marines in that area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bailey, 1700 Vasey.

Known as "Broncho" Bailey when he was a football player and R.O.T.C. captain at Tech, Corporal Bailey entered the service from high school in June 1943 and won an efficiency medal during his training at San Diego CA. He went overseas 15 months ago.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Friday, April 27, 1945.