

Kenneth A. Clark, T-51

29 May 1931 – 5 May 2011

(aged 79)

Korean waters are just like like a vacation to Seaman Apprentice Kenneth A. Clark, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark of Memphis. Now on the minesweeper Comstock, the young sailor wrote home of having just finished minesweeping school at Sasebo, Japan. He told his mother to quit worrying, that he was seeing "lots of sights." Seaman Clark was attending Tech High School when he enlisted last December. He trained at San Diego. Employees and regular customers of Big Star No. 6 at Cooper and Young will remember Seaman Clark there after school since he was 13.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Thursday, May 31, 1951.