SENIORS

A. L. G.

Friday afternoon when the Parent Teacher Association holds its regular meeting will be Senior Day. The Senior class has enough the senior of the Senior Character on the refershment committe, with Emily Preston as chairman. Irby O'Brien will preside.

Emily: Do you think make Emily.

Emily: Do you think clever men make good husbands? Earl: No, Miss Preston, clever men never maarry.

Wonder why Allee always hesitates before answering to his name when the roll is called?

Father: (from head of stairs)
"Isn't it time for the young man
to go home, Alice?
Hall: "Your father is a crank."
Father: Well I may be but a crank comes in mighty handy if you haven't got a self-starter."

Earl is adding to his vocabulary. Everyone is wondering what ox-mosis meant since he used that long word.

Abie didn't know who he wanted the other day when he came into "trig" class and asked for Heard Sutton. He finally decided that he wanted Allee instead.

10-1 Class Division

We think that there was a mis-take in the most love sick pupil. We have good reasons for believ-ing that the title should have been onferred upon Charles Scherer.

Who are we? Who are we? 10-1 Sophomores, Cant you see? We are the Sophs of '22, Of our like there are but few. In years to come,
We'll make things hum,
Hurrah! for every 10-1.

A portrait class has been or ganized in the Art Department. This is a very unusual thing for a high school. The class meets every Tuesday and Thursday, for four periods. There are twelve members. Different mediums are used to work with, several using oil, others pastel s and charcoal. The model, Mr. Wiliam Cornelius, With a red bandana handkerchief with a red bandana handkerchief dround his head, and a cloak of turquoise blue draped over his shoulders makes a very striking subject. With our most efficient instructor, Mr. Abt, the class is sure to make wonderful progress.

9-2 CLASS DIV.

The 9-2 class met last Tuesday for the first time in the vear of 1923.

The class was thrilled by the antics of several students who appeared in long trousers: Samuel Schienberg, Tanner Helsey, and Marion Alexander. The class wishes them the best of luck in 1928.

amual convention of National Teachers and Supervisors. Mr. dacon who was the lone representative from the Bluff City, was loud in his praise of the manner in thich the meeting was conducted and expressed himself well satisfied with the progress being made traveghout the country in closs. The meeting was held in the Hotel Sherman Dec. 26th, 27th, 8th, and 29th, 1922.

WIT AND HUMOR

Dave Ballon's pocketbook is 'windling since he has been depos-ting so many pennies for the stud-nts of the ten-one class division.

NIT CLASS Friend—Don't you think a baby rightens up a home? Father—Yes indeed. We have lights burning all night now.

Heard in the lunch room.

Miss Purnic—Hall, are you in that candy again?

Hall—No, mam the candy is in me.

A student entered a Hygene lecture room when the class was half over. The professor did not recogize the fellow and thinking he was not he wrong room questioned him: "Hygene?"
"Howdy prof." retorted the deinquent one.—Widow.

Nora: What's the matter Son-ny?
Sonny: I burn'd my hand in the h-h-hot water.
Nora: Sorvea you right ye fool, why didn't you feel of the water? before you put your hand in it?
W. W. Jones

The students voted right when they picked out Elsie K. as highest gossip. She sure is living up to the honor. Julia seems to have fallen for H. T. We wonder who the poor fish is.
