

Larry Eugene Dacus, Class of 1958.

A 39-year-old law book salesman was killed at 9:55 a.m. yesterday in a two-car wreck on Tennessee 57 at the west city limits in Collierville.

Larry E. Dacus of 6252 Briarbend Lane, a salesman for Lawyer Co-Op Publishing Company publishers of law books, was returning to Memphis after calling on a client when his automobile was struck head on by an eastbound car.

The police said the other driver swerved to miss another eastbound vehicle which was stopped to make a left turn into a driveway.
