

James J. Gossett, T-34

12 July 1917 – 22 January 1978

(aged 60)

Marine Sergeant James J. Gossett, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gossett of 350 North Waldran, is back in action after recovering from wounds on Iwo Jima.

Sergeant Gossett has racked up 25 months of service in the Pacific: 16 months on his first tour, then a trip to the States and back to that area nine months ago. He has been in the Marines nearly three years. He is a Tech High graduate.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, May 1945.