

John J. Jackson, T-26

7 July 1908 – 21 May 1983

(aged 74)

John J. Jackson (Babe), a lieutenant in the Civil Air Patrol when he entered the Army October 16, 1943, received slight wounds in action January 4 in Luxembourg, the War Department has notified his wife, Mrs. John J. Jackson, 1052 Eastmoreland.

He is a rifleman with an infantry division of the Third Army and has been fighting in Europe since July.

A native Memphian, he is a graduate of Tech High and assistant manager of National Funeral Home.

Information from The Press Scimitar, Friday, January 26, 1945.