

DeWitt Parker Johnston, T-39

6 May 1921 – 9 December 2009

(aged 88)

NEW AIR FORCE EAGLE

Aviation Cadet DeWitt Parker Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Johnston of 1088 Vollintine, received his silver wings and commission at Napier Field, is a graduate of Tech High, where he was a R.O.T. C. captain and a winner of the "knock out drill."

He was for three years a designer of ornamental iron work for Chriss Collins, until volunteering for the air service just a year ago.

Information from The Commercial Appeal Sunday, January 17, 1943.