

Webster Decatur “Deck” Johnston, T-36

8 August 1917 – 1 April 2000

(aged 82)

W. Deck Johnston, Jr., entered the service as a private. He graduated from the Army Air Forces Administrative School at Miami Beach in August, 1942, and has been stationed at the Army Air Force Base Columbia SC.

Capt Johnston is a graduate of Tech High School and former executive secretary for the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was formerly with DuPont.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Decatur Johnston, Sr., 2380 Parkway Place and his wife is the former Jimmye Cottingham of Memphis. The above information is from The Press-Scimitar, Saturday, December 4, 1943.

This other information below is from the Kansas City Star, April, 2000. He was later to take graduate courses at the University of Texas while stationed there. Mr. Johnston was a retired Major in the USAF and saw service in the C.B.I. (China, Burma, India) Theater in WWII. He was a member of the VFW and American Legion.