

(aged 24)

A color photograph of a B-24 Liberator bomber in flight, viewed from a high angle. The aircraft is olive drab with white star insignia on the wings and fuselage. It has four engines and a distinctive high-wing configuration. The background shows a patchwork of fields and forests under a blue sky.

Surviving besides his parents and wife are four sisters, Mrs. Jackson Hudson, Mrs. H. P. Laenneke, Miss Belle Marie Jones, and Miss Dorothy Jean Jones, all of Memphis: and four brothers Private Fields S. Jones of the Army, B. T. Jones, Clifford Jones, and Charles M. Jones, all of Memphis.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Friday, December 18, 1942.