

James Henry Perry, Jr., T-45

24 March 1926 – 27 February 2005

(aged 74)

James H. Perry, Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perry, of Evelyn Street, was recently promoted to seaman second class aboard the cruiser Topeka, which participated in the bombardment of the Japanese mainland shortly before the surrender. He entered the Navy soon after his graduation from Tech High School last January.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Tuesday, August 28, 1945.