

Sam Benjamin Richman, T-38

24 June 1920 – 5 July 1988

(aged 68)

Private Sam Richman, Tech High graduate and former grocery store employee here, is one Memphis soldier in England who appreciates the American Red Cross. He wrote his mother, Mrs. Sarah Richman of 237 South Wellington, last week that the Red Cross was a “good organization and deserved all the praise and money they could get.” He backed up his words of praise with a request to his mother to draw some of his money from the bank and give to the Red Cross.

Information from The Press-Scimitar.