

John H. Rosentreter, T-30

22 July 1909 – 16 April 1944

(aged 34)

Technical Sergeant John H. Rosentreter reported missing in action on April 16, 1944, over India, and has been officially listed as dead, relatives have been advised.

A radio operator in the U. S. Army Air Force, Sergeant Rosentreter was on his 22nd mission when his plane was last seen disappearing among the clouds. He was a member of the crew of a B-25 which left India on a bombing mission to Northern Burma.

Sergeant Rosentreter was born in Memphis and lived at 1909 Tully. He attended Leroy Pope School and was graduated from Tech High. He was 34 and was with Crane Company when he entered the U.S. Army Air Force on 31 July 1942. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. After going overseas in September 1943, he served in Africa, Sicily, Italy, Egypt, and India.

Sergeant Rosentreter's mother, the late Mrs. J. Rosentreter, died last December. Grief over her missing son is said to have hastened her death.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. Marie R. Crain, and a brother, Adolph Rosentreter, both of the Tully address.

