

Nancy Louise Stokely (Saucier), Class of 1953.

Mrs. George Saucier of Boston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. was killed instantly, and her husband and two children were injured when their car, driven by Mr. Saucier swerved off the road and into a tree near Providence, R.I. Tuesday night.

Mr. Saucier, an electronic engineer had both legs and a shoulder broken and is unconscious in a Providence hospital. Their children. Peter, 6 and Patrick 1 were not seriously. The Saucier's were returning home after visiting Memphis and Orlando, FL. Born in Memphis, Mrs. Saucier attended public school in Whitehaven and was graduated from Tech High School in 1953. She moved to Boston last year. She also leaves a brother, Robert Glenn Stokely of Millington Naval Base. Information from The Commercial Appeal, Friday, August 5, 1960