

Henry Presley Wade, Class of 1917.

Hit with a whisky bottle, Henry, 41, of Lucy, dies of injuries. Police claim confession from Henry S. Hardin, 30. The day before, two men left their homes at Lucy and came to Memphis to apply for jobs at the Millington powder plant. Hardin confessed that he killed Wade with a whisky bottle after an argument in Hardin's car.

