

Jack Fennell Wallace, T-45

11 November 1927 – 12 June 2010

(aged 82)

Recently promoted from master sergeant to warrant officer junior grade was Jack F. Wallace, 23, a member of the 855th Medical Clearing Company, a local National Guard unit. He handles recruiting and administrative duties for the 855th, based at the Tennessee National Guard Armory, 2525 Central.

Mr. Wallace lives with his wife, Mrs. June S. Wallace at 3539 Kimball. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Wallace at 3507 Kimball.

The new warrant officer was graduated from Tech High School in 1945 and spent a year and a half in the Coast Guard, including duty in Kwajalein in the MidPacific.

He attended Memphis State College for about two years and worked another two years as radio dispatches for the Memphis Police Department before joining the National Guard in January 1950.

Information from The Commercial Appeal, Thursday, September 20, 1951.