

David Richard Williams, T-47

8 July 1929 – 1 April 1967

(aged 37)

Colonel Williams was a member of the 606th Air Commando Squadron, Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai Airfield, Thailand. On April 1, 1967, he was the pilot of a North American Nomad Trainer (T-28D) on a mission over Laos. While preparing to attack a target, his aircraft was hit by hostile fire and crashed. His remains were recovered on July 15, 1996 and identified on June 14, 2002.

