

John William Williams, T-39

31 January 1922 – 19 January 2008

(aged 85)

Technical Sergeant John W. Williams, 23, Tech High graduate, has been missing since March 17, during a B-17 flight over Germany, the War Department has notified his wife, Mrs. Dorothy F. Williams, 1672 Lawrence.

He is a radio-gunner on the Flying Fortress. He has been awarded the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters. Sgt Williams went into the service in September 1942 and went overseas last October.

Besides his wife and baby daughter, Patricia Faye Williams, he has a sister, Mrs. Virginia Doney in Memphis. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams, live at 3008 Carrington. He has four brothers, TSgt Carl Williams in Germany; TSgt Clarence Williams with the AAF, wounded in February in Italy; Louis Williams in the Navy at NATTC, Millington and Malone Williams of Nashville.